To all members, thank you for your continued support. You are part of more than 1,600 individual and family members of the JCC. You have come for yoga, Pilates, Zumba, cycling, personal training, and you enjoy personal TVs on all treadmills, elliptical trainers, and recumbent bikes. In addition to however you presently use the JCC, think about trying some of our other fitness options. There really is no limit as to how you can use your JCC.

We also have a full array of Jewish programming. We have Lunch and Learn with the Rabbi, Jewish cultural programs, a Jewish film library, and a Jewish book fair, among other things. If you are Jewish, please avail yourself of these options. If you are not Jewish, which is the case for many of our members, this is an opportunity to learn a little about Judaism and explore its rich culture. Regardless, our JCC thrives on religious diversity, and we welcome all of you.
